

Additional Special Cash Payments for Households with Children

① Hakusan City Single Parent Special Payment

In order to help support single parent households, Hakusan City will provide a special payment to those already receiving child support benefits.

Eligibility

Those who received child support benefits in April 2020.

Payment Amount

40,000 yen per household.

Payment Method

- Notifications will be sent by post from the end of May.
- There is no need to apply for this payment, it will be automatically paid into the same account as the child support benefits you are receiving.

② Additional Special Payment for Households with Children

This special payment is for households who receive child support benefits and have children (aged 0-15) at home.

Eligibility

- (1) Those who received child support benefits in April 2020 (excluding special payments).
(Including in part March as well)
- (2) As of 31st March those who have their address registered in Hakusan City.
- (3) Those whose income did not exceed the child support benefit limit in 2018.
*Households with children who graduated junior high school in March will also be eligible for the special payment.
*Children born after April will not be eligible.

Payment Amount

10,000 yen for every eligible child.

How to apply

An application is not necessary, the amount will be paid into the account which you receive your child benefits.

(Civil servants must submit an application)

Date of Payment and payment method

Payments will be made directly into your account which you have registered to receive the child support benefits. (Excluding civil servants)